Hospitality: You will find it a warm and welcoming online experience with friendly people. Why not try it out?

The Talks: are designed to engage and inspire conversation. Each talk is around twenty minutes long and played as a video. They explore the big issues around faith and unpack the basics of Christianity, addressing questions from Who is Jesus? and How can we have faith? to Why and how do I pray? and How does God guide us? The quality of the videos is such that whether you have never heard of Jesus or are a lifelong Christian, you will learn new things to inspire and move you.

Discussion: one of the most important parts of any Alpha: the chance to share thoughts and ideas on the topic and discuss in a small group online over Zoom video conferencing. There is no obligation to say anything and there's nothing you can't say (seriously). It is an opportunity to hear from others and contribute your own perspective in an honest, friendly, and open online environment.

How it runs online: participants connect with a Zoom video conference through a link supplied by email. (A learning session will take place before the course for those unfamiliar with Zoom). After a social introduction, everyone watches the video together, then breaks out into individual groups for discussion. The whole session is only 75 minutes.

Who? This course is open to anyone over 18. It does not matter whether or where you go to church. Non-believers, committed Christians, occasional churchgoers, those who have not been for a while or have doubts, or who have questions about life and faith.

When? The course will run on Wednesday evenings at 7.30pm starting 3rd March and finishing on the 12th May 2020. Sessions last 75 minutes. There will be a Holy Spirit morning session on Saturday 17th April (for 2.5 hours only-for those who want to come).

How? Please register by 28th February by emailing Aidan Tod aidan@12exec.co.uk
